power; the Soviet Union, now under control of the Red Army, stands for Military power. These two powers are now absolutely inimical. The American Jews insist upon trying to extend their instrumentalities of money power to every corner of the world, through their chosen instruments, the United Nations and the banking system. The Soviet Union, under military rule, is implacably hostile to this aim. The two systems are rushing toward violent collision, in which the Jews will fight with money and the Soviet Union will fight with arms. The basic historical forces which make this conflict between the money power and military power absolutely inevitable are described brilliantly by Oswald Spengler in the last two pages of The Decline of the West. The conflict cannot be avoided. It must come. If Jewish money power remains in the saddle here, it can only result in disaster for the United States. The Jews, by destroying the military power which might be a threat to their money power on the domestic scene, are stripping us of the military defenses needed for bare survival.

This is what the Calley case is really about. The Jews, in striking at Calley, are striking at a power which they know to be dangerous to them. If the military power ever decided to strike a blow for the American people, the Sterns would no longer be filthy rich. They would have to go running across the border, as the Jews have done so often in the past, with their shirttails flapping in the breeze and their fabulous wealth gone with the wind. That is why they are out to undermine the armed forces.

Actually it seems to me they are overdoing the thing. American senior officers have shown themselves notoriously corruptible in recent times. George C. Marshall helped sell China into Communism. Eisenhower was an obedient shabbos Goy, a creature whose career was made by Bernard Baruch. Many senior officers belong to the CFR. Others belong to the John Birch Society. Superficially, it would seem that these two groups of senior officers are on "opposite" sides. Actually, all of them are members of the same profession, like lawyers who "fight" each other in the courtroom and then go out and have lunch together. The American senior officers, to put it very mildly indeed, are not exactly a hotbed of rebellion against the Jewish money power. On the contrary, they are almost always eager to rush pell-mell into the posh spiritual bordello of power and pelf when the doors are opened to them by the achievement of senior rank. Who can blame them? Why expect them to be different from the rest of our materialistic society?

The Real Villain

The real villain is civilian control of the armed forces. This is a cherished old American tradition and it may be the death of the nation. Civilians like McNamara and Yarmolinsky have just about destroyed the armed forces. THEY are the real villains in Vietnam! There is no more promiscuous mass murderer on God's footstool than the incompetent military commander. The Vietnam war could have been won in six weeks. By prolonging it for many years, the civilians who control our armed forces have caused the deaths of untold thousands of people, both American and Vietnamese.

McNamara and Yarmolinsky are the real mass murderers of thousands of people; it is a sad thing that, when they want a SCAPEGOAT, they have to go down to the rank of lieutenant to find one. It was not Lt. Calley they were after; it was not the people of My Lai who concerned them. Any lieutenant would have done just as well as Calley. Any village would have done just as well as My Lai. The Americans and Vietnamese alike are caught in the conflict between money power and military power.

Lt. Calley is merely an individual victim of conflicting political forces which he himself obviously does not begin to understand. How could he at his age? You need to be a nasty, worldly-wise old cynic, travel-stained and educated in the school of hard knocks, to understand things like this. If you believe the controlled press, you might think people like the Sterns are overcome with grief for the people of My Lai. I myself feel sincere grief for the people of My Lai, and for all of the little brown people who have been slain by the incompetence and corruption of McNamara and Yarmolinsky. To blame these things upon a mere lieutenant is preposterous. The Calley case is an intolerable piece of journalistic jobbery posing as "military justice." The blame rests squarely upon our corrupt and incompetent Jewish ruling class. As long as we remain under Jewish rule, this is the kind of thing we will have to expect!

Remarks by Lt. William Calley

"No one has yet tried to analyze the problems that caused not only My Lai, but the war in Vietnam itself."

"I hope My Lai is not a tragedy but an eye-opener, even for people who say war is hell."

"Even if convicted, I still feel strongly about the Army. From what I've seen of the world and communism, we definitely need an Army."

"Speaking of P.O.W.'s in Southeast Asia, Lt. Calley remarked: 'We owe these people a lot and cannot afford to forget them. If I'm convicted of a war crime, that sort of makes me a P.O.W. too.'"

Readers' View on Lt. Calley

To the Editor:

I was a soldier in two wars. Until I learned that the money interests finance both sides of all wars and have, since 1792, I was patriotic. Today, I am opposed to wars.

What transpired in Vietnam was not unusual. It has happened in all conflicts since 1776. Both sides were guilty of committing atrocities. I saw them performed in the two wars in which I was involved.

In my opinion, Lt. Calley should never have been tried, because he was only obeying orders given him by his superiors. Actually, the military is responsible.

I was born on Dec. 29, 1883. I hope to see the day when all wars will cease.

Need I say more?

C. J. PAUL ERICKSON

To the Editor:

Now that it is official policy of the United States to punish soldiers for killing the enemy in time of war, let us all demand that charges be immediately filed against former President Harry S. Truman for the killing of 186,000 innocent civilians at Nagasaki and in Hiroshima six months after Japan had attempted to surrender!

And how about impeaching Nixon for furnishing "foreign aid" to countries who use it to furnish munitions for killing our sons in Vietnam? Why don't YOU, dear reader, let your Congressman and Senators know you object to the continual murder of our boys in "no-win" wars?

FRANK R. FURINTON

To the Editor:

Lt. William Calley's life was endangered in Vietnam. It is now endangered in America via court martial: this constitutes double jeopardy. It is a travesty on justice to thus harass and torment this young soldier, because he did the very job he was trained for and ordered to Vietnam to do: i.e. to search out and destroy the enemy. Is it less humane to kill the enemy with rifle-fire than to bomb them to bits? And where is the degree of difference in involvement of OUR MEN IN LAOS whether on the ground or in helicopters? They can be just as dead in either case.

This is the craziest politically-fought war in history: a war of attrition against our own men, who are the pawns in the game. There is no nice way to fight a deadly war. Calley is a scapegoat for the mistakes of others. American actor John Wayne says VICTORY is the only objective in war: not 'politics as usual.'

I'd like to see how our pampered politicians would function in a My Lai situation, under fire: they're making plenty of mistakes where they are. After the horrors of Vietnam, the court martial is making this young soldier live it all over again, treating him and his life as if he were a bug under a microscope. Very few men could stand what he's been put through. What about the higher-ups who have caused this tremendous waste of human life, as well as resources (causing many hardships on Americans at home), by this useless NO-WIN foreign war? The fantastic results and debt-taxes will haunt and enslave unborn generations of Americans. But what is that to rich Lyndon Johnson or unelected unofficial President Henry Kissinger? They live in luxury, but are never punished for THEIR mistakes!
